

Bernhard Wolff

Bernhard Wolff is a creativity and communication expert and his appearances have already inspired hundreds of thousands of people. His keynote speech is the entertaining highlight of international conferences. Bernhard Wolff inspires people to invest in new ideas – and encourages participants to network among themselves. On request, he can supplement his talks through round-table discussions, workshops and entertainment. In feedback assessments, this stage professional regularly receives top marks and his list of references is impressive. With a degree in pedagogy relating specifically to the field of economics, this native Berliner imparts his knowledge as a speaker, author, lecturer and consultant. His creative agency – Think-Theater GmbH – has already co-organised more than 500 meetings and events. Bernhard Wolff is famous as a "backwards speaker", having appeared on more than 50 TV shows.

"Ideas for success"

Themes

› Talk: a yen for ideas!

The motivating talk that makes people more creative and meetings more imaginative:

- There are other ways of doing things – try them out!
- Using the brilliant principles of creativity
- Network until the ideas simply bubble up
- Developing innovation culture together
- From design thinking to co-creation

› Brainstorming sessions: participants in action

The perfect addition to a talk. In small groups, participants generate ideas and present them in a group session:

- Participants network among themselves, lots of dialogue!
- Creative results, topic-related!
- A climate of innovation made tangible!

› Entertainment: „Backwards Speaker“

With his highly entertaining performance as a "backwards speaker", Bernhard Wolff shows how to change direction mid-thought:

- As a highlight in the talk or as a separate act. Standing ovations in the USA!

› Specialist topics for specific target groups:

- dea-gathering days (planners and project managers)
- As an executive at conferences (executives and management)
- Moderating conferences (HR, executives, trainers)
