

Henry Maske

“Deliver strikes, take blows, box through – Boxing as a metaphor of life”

Henry Maske, Olympic champion, IBF world champion, sportsman of the year, boxer of the year, Bambi award winner, Golden Camera, received the German Federal Cross of Merit in 2001. In 2012, he received the most important German sports award, the Golden Sports Pyramid of the „Stiftung Deutsche Sportshilfe“ and was inducted into the Hall of Fame of German sports. The establishment of the Henry Maske Foundation “A place for Kids” in 1999, which campaigns for disadvantaged children and teenagers, was an affair of the heart for him. At the end of his first career, Henry Maske understood how to transfer the success principles of sports into business. As a franchisee, he now operates 10 McDonald’s restaurants with a staff of over 350 in the greater Köln area. His lectures and business talks are fireworks of stimuli, motivation, as well as inspiration. He understands how to get people excited and encourages independent action faithful to his motto, „If you really want something and do everything for it, you can manage it as well.“
