

Dominik Neidhart

Dominik Neidhart is a great sailing professional within the Alinghi Team and winner of the XXXI America's Cup, the formula one of sailing. He lives and works after the motto: „go hard or go home“. As a Keynote Speaker he presents in an engaging manner, his experiences with the Swiss Alinghi Team and how he helped bringing the America's Cup to Europe for the first time in the Cup's 152 year long history. In his presentations, he analyses the crucial success factors of Alinghi and demonstrates how to achieve high performance, not only in sport teams but also in the business environment. Neidhart's enthusiasm for his sport and his topic is catching. With ease and charm he illustrates with very impressive pictures common success and unlimited exultation as well as lived values, leadership skills and communications culture
