

Richard de Hoop, CSP

“The sound makes the music, but who makes the sound?”

How do you turn a team into a harmoniously playing orchestra? The inspiring motivational speaker Richard de Hoop uses music as a metaphor and rocks every stage. As a stirring source of inspiration, he truly owns the stage and enthrallingly and informatively conveys how a lone soloist in a company can become an orchestra that produces melodies instead of noise. To show this, he employs useful knowledge and enthusiastic entertainment. Your customers, employees and guests will sustainably internalize the musical and highly motivating performance by the Dutchman de Hoop on the topic “Team Play,” and actively seek out opportunities to consistently work together harmoniously, joyfully and successfully. Run the orchestra of your company with Richard de Hoop's passionate presentations on new euphony! Let's rock!
